JAMES CAMERON invites you to join him in Santa Barbara for a private benefit premiere of his new immersive 3-D adventure:

Thursday, April 3, 2003, at the Bacara Resort & Spa, Santa Barbara
7 p.m. Private reception with James Cameron and friends
8 p.m. Benefit premiere screening of "Ghosts of the Abyss"

$500 per person for reception and screening

Academy Award-winning director James Cameron journeys back with cutting-edge digital filming technology to the site of his greatest inspiration: the Titanic. Experience this unprecedented 3-D motion picture event in support of the Donald Bren School of Environmental Science & Management at the University of California, Santa Barbara, and James Cameron's Blue Planet Marine Research Foundation, one week before its first release to the public. Sponsored by Microsoft Windows Media.

To reserve seats, R.S.V.P. by March 28 by calling (805) 893-4445. To confirm your reservation, your contribution must be received by April 1 at the Donald Bren School of Environmental Science & Management, Attention: Jennifer Purcell, 2439 Donald Bren Hall, University of California, Santa Barbara, CA 93106-5131. If paying by check, make payable to "UC Regents for the Bren School."

DIRECTIONS TO THE BACARA RESORT & SPA (8301 HOLLISTER AVENUE, 805-968-0100)
FROM THE SOUTH: Follow Highway 101 north. About 15 minutes (13 miles) north from downtown Santa Barbara, exit Winchester Canyon Road and go straight at the first stop sign on Calle Real. At the second stop sign, turn left over the bridge toward the ocean. Turn right at the Sandpiper Golf course and Bacara Resort & Spa entrance. Proceed one mile and turn left into motor courtyard.
FROM THE NORTH: Follow Highway 101 about five minutes (10 miles) south of El Capitan. Exit Winchester Canyon Road and turn right. Turn right at the Sandpiper Golf course and Bacara Resort & Spa entrance. Proceed one mile and turn left into motor courtyard.